

Do not limit what XM is able to do. This is a power play that the old fashioned radio operators are trying to keep the old rules in place and continue to deliver their sub-standard quality of radio. XM is an excellent evolution of the traditional radio broadcast.

While I do not personally use the weather/traffic reports, they are just another value added service that makes XM such a clear and simple choice over today's commercial plugged radio.

Thank you.